U

These words includes the following accented vowel sounds:

Ū as in use; heard also in beauty, feud, pew, queue, lieu, view, cue, suit, yule, you, do, rule, true, food, group, drew, fruit, canoe, rheum, maneuver, blue. The difference between dew and do is that dew is properly dyŪ, with a consonantal y sound preceding the long U, while do is merely dŪ.

Ū as in urn; heard also in fern, err, heard, sir, word, journal, myrrh, colonel.

Ū as in up; heard also in won, one, does, flood, double.

For the vowel sound in full, see under ŌŌ.

■ Section III ■

WORDS ACCENTED ON THE THIRD SYLLABLE FROM THE END: ANTEPENULTS; TRIPLE RHYMES

A

For a discussion of words included under the accented vowels following, see the beginning of A rhymes in Section I.

(Note on Archaic Verb Forms Among Triple Rhymes — The archaic verb forms ending in -est and -eth have not as a rule been listed among the triple rhymes, to avoid needlessly expanding the book. When desired, they can be found by locating the present participles of triple-rhymed verbs, the -ing form: such forms as laboring, bracketing, fracturing, dallying, hampering, clamoring, meandering, and the rest. These can be turned without difficulty into the desired archaic forms: as, laborest, laboreth; bracketest, bracketeth; and so with all of them.)
